

REV. ANA QUINTANA

Candidate for Board of Trustees

Rev. Ana Quintana is currently completing her first term on the UWM Board of Trustees. Originally from Puerto Rico, Rev. Ana's passion for metaphysics began in her early teens. While working in the business world, she studied to become a Unity minister and was ordained in 1999. Rev. Ana's business experience and education have brought unique skills to Unity of the Triangle in Raleigh, NC where she has served as associate minister since 2012.

In addition to her regular church duties, Rev. Ana leads a Spanish speaking ministry. She is considered to be one of the leading voices of the Unity movement in Spanish. Her radio show, "De Viaje con Rev. Ana," formerly aired on Unity Online Radio and continues to air on Univision PR. It is the #1 station in PR that also broadcasts in Latino audiences in the U.S.

Rev. Ana describes her management style as "democratic and charismatic," and "seeks input from all involved before making decisions or delivering solutions." She is passionate about sharing the Unity message to everyone who is ready. She is blessed to be the mother of three wonderful souls, Claire, Luc and Lauren.

KEY FACTS:

- Ordained in 1999
- Completing her first term on the UWM Board of Trustees
- Associate Minister at Unity of the Triangle since 2012
- Leads a Spanish speaking ministry, and hosts the radio show, "De Viaje con Rev. Ana," on Univision PR, the #1 station in PR
- Strong leadership, management and entrepreneurial skills